Hoop House at Bayard!

After eight years of effort, Bill Wolkoff has succeeded in obtaining permission for constructing a temporary, seasonal hoop house (hoop greenhouse) at the Arboretum. The 12' x 24' structure is currently under construction and will be located behind the garages by the lower Carriage House. Through Bill's continual and determined effort, the hoop house will help us bring earlier blooms to the garden and attract more visitors. This also provides a variety of new opportunities for LIDS volunteers to assist and learn. A very BIG thank you to both Bill Wolkoff for leading the charge and to Nelson Sterner, Director of the Arboretum, for his help and support in achieving this goal.

Wolkoff Garden News

Welcome back to the start of the 2012 dahlia season, beginning on Saturday, March 10 at 9:00 AM; please join us at the Wolkoff Garden. There are a variety of tasks, we will be dividing tubers (bring your own pruners and other tools you may need for the dahlia work), we will also be preparing the beds and working on the covers for the new greenhouse. Coffee and cake follows!

How do you keep busy?

Since I've retired people ask me "how do you keep busy?" You know that some of us go into the kitchen to get – now what did we want to get? So we go back into the living room to remember, but by the time we get there we forget why, rather than what. This keeps me quite busy these days! Keep your chin up, seniors!

Electronic Growers Resources Online

www.e-gro.org

This site has been recommend by Jim Micheels as a source of information for dahlias. (While not intended for beginners, the site offers a variety of information relating to dahlias and other plantings.)

Once on the site, click on e-grow alerts and you will find a link to “Dahlia Photoperiod” which describes the effect of length of day on tuber formations in dahlia cuttings.

Vases Needed in the Fall!

The Fundraising Committee is requesting members to donate any glass vases (like the ones below) that will be used for dahlia arrangements to sell at the fall shows.

Vases need to be this size: height 5-6", diameter 3-4"

Please keep the vases at home until the fall show!

Contact Lynn Schiller at lynn@pdapanache.com for additional information

Dahlia Growers Wanted too! As you plan your garden, please consider growing the smaller dahlias that beautifully fill these vases.

Soil Testing and March Garden Tips

Can't wait to get into the garden? Here are some gardening tips from Cornell Cooperative Extension.

Check soil pH. Dahlias like a slightly acidic soil, 6.5 to 7.0. Testing for pH will be available at the March and April Meetings. If you have not done this before, you can obtain instructions for taking a soil sample by e-mail from lidsboard@gmail.com

- When soil is dry enough to work, incorporate lime into the soil, only if needed.
- Work compost and well-rotted manure into dahlia beds in March.
- Apply fertilizer (5/10/5) to spring flowering bulbs as soon as shoots start poking through the soil
- This is a good time to prune summer flowering shrubs whose buds develop in the spring
- New trees and shrubs can be planted in March to take advantage of early spring rains.
- Do a thorough garden cleanup at the end of March; be on the lookout for swarming termites and carpenter ants.
- Do not fertilize lawns now, wait until Memorial Day.
